Student Grievances and Appeals Policy

D.1 Procedure

Responsible	Procedure Steps		W/I
	1	Outline of the grievances and appeals process
Student	1.1	While this process outlines the four (4) stages of the Student Grievances and Appeals Process, Stage 1 is not appropriate in serious matters, for example where you have been informed of an intention to preclude you from further assessments or you have received a letter of Intention to Report (ITR). In these situations, you should commence this process at Stage 2 – formal grievance.
Student	1.2	Students are required to maintain their enrolment during all stages of the appeal process. This includes re-enrolment where there is a holiday break between study.
Student	1.3	SAIBT/CELUSA will maintain a student's enrolment during the appeals process unless the student is issued an ITR notification for non-payment of fees or misconduct. SAIBT/CELUSA will report the student to the Department of Home Affairs following the Stage 3 internal appeal process if the outcome is unsuccessful.
	2	Access to mediation services
Student	2.1	Community Mediation Services can assist with resolving disputes in many ways, by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • providing information about positive and constructive alternatives to the Legal system; • encouraging people to explore options together to reach a mutually acceptable agreement; and • conducting negotiations with the other party
	2.2	Community Mediation Services operate offices throughout the State of South Australia, including: Adelaide City Angle Park Christies Beach Elizabeth Warradale https://www.clcsa.org.au/
	3	Stage 1 - informal grievance

		4.1.1	Appeals relating to deferred exam requests need to be submitted to the Student & Academic Services within 5 working days .
Student and Academic Services (SAS)		4.2	Review the appeals, check the evidence, and add any relevant documentation in relation to the appeal.	✓
		4.3	Send the appeal documentation to the relevant staff member for consideration. If the appeal is about financial matters, it must be sent to the College Director and Principal (CDP).	✓
Staff member		4.4	Check to ensure all processes have been correctly followed.
		4.5	Review the appeal evidence and make a decision.
		4.5.1	If the appeal is regarding unsatisfactory attendance and the attendance on the Intention to Report (ITR) letter is below 70%, invite the student to an interview to present their case.
		4.5.2	If the student attends the interview, advise them that the appeal can only be considered on the grounds of due process being incorrectly followed.
		4.5.3	Consider all other appeals on the basis of the students' written submission.
		4.6	Send the outcome to Student and Academic Services.
SAS		4.7	Implement the decision or recommendation and/or take the preventive or corrective action if required by the decision.	✓
		4.8	Send an outcome letter to the student within 7 working days of receipt of the grievance.	✓
Student		4.9	If you are not satisfied with the outcome of Stage 2, your appeal is regarding a Notice of Intention to Report (ITR) for unsatisfactory attendance, and your attendance on your ITR
